BAGS + BACKPACKS

ALPHA GLOBETROTTER XC

The first version of this bag was launched in 2014 and it's been our best selling camera bag since.

Iterated over the years, we've taken customer feedback on board and are proud to present this latest version, designed by us, refined by you.

The Alpha Globetrotter XC features an improved, more comfortable, more breathable back panel, overall lighter weight construction, increasing the all-day usability of the bag whilst retaining that distinctive Langly look. Added internal features allow for the mid section to be unzipped to enabling full internal capacity for everyday use.

Color: Slate / Black Brown

RRP: 259.00 USD

WEEKENDER COLLECTION

A new collection of multi-functional and adaptable bags designed for photography, travel and every-day use.

In creating the collection we've tried to achieve a well-balanced combination of Langly design heritage and contemporary styling.

We looked back into our design archive, extracting key elements from the first Langly products then introduced new construction techniques, materials and trim. The result is undeniably Langly, but elevated in terms of function and aesthetic.

We've learnt a lot in our first 10 years, the Weekender collection is a culmination of all this wrapped up in three great bags.

PARACORD NECK STRAPS

Originally used in the suspension lines of US parachutes during World War II, 550 lb test paracord flexes but will never break. Worn around your neck or as a sling, the strap's suspension shields your camera from shocks when you inattentively jump off rocks. The strap's sturdy nylon webbing with a suede lining wears soft against your sunburnt neck and easily supports the heaviest SLR and long lens combos.

Color: Camo/Mercury/Grey/Bootstrap/Orange/Green
RRP: 40.00 USD

PARACORD NECK STRAP — COLOUR

Features

- 550-lb test paracord for enhanced durability.
- Eyelet support to fit any SLR, DSLR, rangefinder, or binoculars.
- Each strap is supplied with a second set of quick release camera body connectors allowing the strap to be swapped between multiple camera bodies.
- Can handle the heaviest camera/lens combinations.
- Feels good, looks good, and gets the job done.

HANDSTRAP CAMERA STRAP

At Langly, we design our gear with your next adventure in mind. That includes our smallest strap: the Langly Camera and Phone Wrist Strap.

Made from 7mm climbing rope, this strap is designed to keep your cell phone, Micro Four-Thirds (M4/3) or point-and-shoot camera within easy reach at all times.

The rope's natural suspension and flexibility shield your camera or phone from shocks while negotiating rough terrain and is the perfect fit for the smaller camera that never leaves your side.

The small loop at the end of the strap will fit most camera strap eyelets and will thread through strap attachments on most cell phones or phone cases. Also suitable for keys, flash lights, remote controls or anything else you need to keep easily accessible.

Color: Red / Green / Black

RRP: 20.00 USD
